U.S. Customs and Border Protection

NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEPORT FOR VIOLATING THE TERMS OF YOUR ADMISSION
UNDER SECTION 217 OF THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT

SIGMA Event: 61404323

Event No: FBB2404001131

File Number: A- 241053898

To: HAMETNER, UWE

Address: 153 Central Avenue 680,
Albany, NEW YORK 12206

U.S. Customs and Border Protection has determined that you entered the United States pursuant to Section 217 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Accordingly, you executed a Form I-94W, Visa Waiver Program Information Form that explained to you the conditions of admission under the Visa Waiver Program. When you signed the Form I-94W, you also waived your right to contest deportability before an Immigration Judge and the Board of Immigration Appeals, and to any judicial review of the any and all of the above decisions.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection has determined that you have violated the terms of your admission under Section 217 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, on the grounds that: you entered the United States on 10/31/2020 at Port of Miami under the provisions of the Visa Waiver Program and were admitted until 01/28/2021

On the basis of the foregoing it is charged that you are subject to removal from the United States pursuant to the following provisions of law:

Section See Narrative of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), as amended, in that after admission as a nonimmigrant under Sections 101(a)(15) of the Act and 235.I (f)(iii) of Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, you failed to comply with the conditions of the nonimmigrant status under which you were admitted.

Accordingly, U.S. Customs and Border Protection has entered an order that you be deported and removed from the United States.

In accordance with the provisions of section 212(a)(9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), you are prohibited from entering, attempting to enter, or being in the United States:

- For a period of 5 years from the date of your departure from the United States because you have been found deportable under section 237 of the Act and ordered removed from the United States by an immigration judge in proceedings under section 240 of the Act initiated upon your arrival in the United States as a returning lawful permanent resident.
- For a period of 10 years from the date of your departure from the United States because you have been found:
- deportable under section 237 of the Act and ordered removed from the United States by an immigration judge in proceedings under section 240 of the Act.
  - inadmissible under section 212 of the Act and ordered removed from the United States by an immigration judge in proceedings under section 240 of the Act initiated as a result of your having been present in the United States without admission or parole.
  - deportable under section 241 of the Act and ordered deported from the United States by an immigration judge in proceedings commenced before April 1, 1997 under section 242 of the Act.
  - deportable under section 237 of the Act and ordered removed from the United States in accordance with section 238 of the Act by a judge of a United States district court, or a magistrate of a United States magistrate court.
- For a period of 20 years from the date of your departure from the United States because, after having been previously excluded, deported, or removed from the United States, you have been found:
- inadmissible under section 212 of the Act and ordered removed from the United States by an immigration judge in proceedings under section 240 of the Act.
  - deportable under section 237 of the Act and ordered removed from the United States by an immigration judge in proceedings under section 240 of the Act.
  - deportable under section 237 of the Act and ordered removed from the United States in proceedings under section 238 of the Act.
  - deportable under section 241 of the Act and ordered deported from the United States by an immigration judge in proceedings commenced before April 1, 1997 under section 242 of the Act.
  - to have reentered the United States illegally and have had the prior order reinstated under section 241(a)(5) of the Act.
- At any time because you have been found inadmissible or excludable under section 212 of the Act, or deportable under section 241 or 237 of the Act, and ordered deported or removed from the United States, and you have been convicted of a crime designated as an aggravated felony, as defined under section 101(a)(43) of the Act.

After your removal has been effected you must request and obtain permission from the Secretary of Homeland Security to reapply for admission to the United States during the period indicated. You must obtain such permission before commencing your travel to the United States. Application forms for requesting permission to reapply for admission may be obtained by contacting any United States Consulate or U.S. Department of Homeland Security office. Refer to the above file number when requesting forms or information.

WARNING FOR ALL REMOVED ALIENS: It is a crime under Title 8 United States Code, Section 1326, for an alien who has been removed from the United States to enter, attempt to enter, or be found in the United States without the Secretary of Homeland Security's express consent. Depending on the circumstances of the removal, conviction for this crime can result in imprisonment of a period of from 2 to 20 years and/or a fine up to $250,000.00.

SPECIAL NOTICE FOR SEX OFFENDERS: Federal Law requires a convicted sex offender, including an alien who has been removed from or otherwise departed the United States and subsequently returns, to register in each jurisdiction in the United States in which he or she resides, is employed, or is a student. Violation of this requirement can result in prosecution and imprisonment for up to 10 years under Title 18 United States Code, Section 2250.
